

Maximise the engagement and productivity of your staff

Membership of Working Families supports you in achieving a workplace culture and environment that maximises talent potential and employee engagement, with attendant increases in productivity.

We can help you ensure that diversity and inclusiveness are at the heart of what you do, as work-life balance and flexible working are for all employees, regardless of gender, race, caring responsibilities, age or disability.

In becoming a member of Working Families, you will be joining a thriving community of active employers who are keen to learn from each other and share best practice. It gives you access to leading-edge thinking and a wealth of knowledge and expertise on flexible working issues, with an understanding of the business context as well as the individual's needs.

As the leading organisation in this field with over 30 years experience of working with employers, policy makers and employees, we can assist you in doing this by ensuring that you:

- Know how your organisation measures up compared to other leading employers
- Have a clear idea of what your priorities should be and how that fits in with your overall strategic plans
- Keep up to date with best practice among other leading employers
- Keep abreast of potential legislative changes and the implications they have for your organisation
- Have the opportunity to influence government policy by making your views known to policy makers
- Have knowledge of and access to original research by key thinkers in the field

Being part of Working Families benefits your organisation, your staff, your clients and your customers

Take advantage of all the membership benefits other employers are enjoying:

- Free entry into the Top Employers for Working Families Benchmark and special awards
- A free individual report and feedback session on your organisation's performance as illustrated by the benchmarking survey
- Access to the Members Only website, giving you and your colleagues all the latest research, best practice case studies, tools and templates, good practice guides, key facts and figures, detailed responses to government policy papers and information about legislative changes
- Discounted rate (25%) on our Working Families Consultancy & Training service
- Special member rate (20% discount) for our thought-provoking conferences and seminars held during the year providing the opportunity to network with your peers, meet government ministers and key speakers
- Free entry to our topical briefing sessions
- The opportunity to be involved in research projects as participants
- The opportunity to sponsor events, webinars and research projects giving your organisation exposure to over 8,000 of our contacts in this field
- Use of the Working Families Membership logo and a membership certificate

So, if you want to have access to leading expertise on how to build and enhance a workforce that maximises employee engagement, wellbeing, creativity and talent potential which underpins your business strategy, purpose and values, join Working Families today.
